P.C. :

1. On 12.1.2005 Appeal was dismised for non removal of office objections. Appeal is filed in 2003. Appeal was restored to file on condition that all office objections are to be positively and without fail to be removed within two weeks. If the office objections are not so removed the order of dismissal was to stand as it is without reference to the court.

2. Office objections are not removed. By this Civil Applications, Appellants are praying for extension of time to remove office objections. This is a case of total negligence and carelessness. Time cannot be extended. Civil Application stands dismissed.
